It is difficult for me to understand the principle on which the recommendation in this case has been made. I can understand the payment of honorarium to an official or stranger who has nothing to do with his office the Extra work of which is attended to by him. But I cannot see how the payment of ~~Can be justified~~ honorarium to an official for doing his legitimate work of his own office can be justified. If his honorarium is to be paid on his former basis the official turned out Extra work during out-of-office hours. Every official of the ~~Secretariat~~ Secretariat office. Every Camp clerk of the Secretariat will be entitled to it as they have to be at their work almost all the hours of the
